Re Maxene T. Larye, 5007 N. Kenmore, Apt. 1-B, Chicago last address listed in September of 1974

b6
b7C

Over the years have received many letters and post cards - never closer what she wishes. Last August, we wrote her and asked her to come to [redacted] and her mother.
We are very sorry of what she wanted almost that she wanted money. When [redacted] suggested we were - she got very angry.

One of her letters says she is employed on Mondays at Valmer Hair Styles and Products Co. 1011 Prairie Ave., Tel. 225-3000 or 3001 - but not to call her because she doesn't "speak on the telephone" -

One of her letters (last August 1974) - is some 20 pages long giving account of her family history. Says she lived with her mother at 3016 N. Pine Grove until her mother's death in Feb. 1971. Continues that she is totally isolated from her family of three older sisters and five brothers because of the "brutality and the branding of me via these criminal fascist activities - Inmate". Gives lots of addresses of family, accuses them all of persecuting her -

Some of her letters have a stamp on each page, as follows:
The Electronic Switch Board
"A Dragonman"
Copyright U.S. Congress Library

Some of her letters are signed "Dragonman" or "Feb. of Dragonman"
